

Romans 14 (NIV) – Build Good Relations With Fellow Believers

Homework for September 18, 2024 - Kingdom Men

1. In verse 1, it states “Accept the one whose faith is weak, without quarreling over disputable matters.” How would you describe someone who is weak in faith? What are some disputable matters that some Christians may disagree on?
2. In this chapter, the Apostle Paul mentions the eating of certain foods and considering one day more sacred than another as points of disagreement. Explain why these two issues might cause misunderstanding or conflict among Christian believers in the early church? Provide scriptures to support your answer.
3. In verses 10 - 12, it states “You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God’s judgment seat. It is written: “‘As surely as I live,’ says the Lord, ‘every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God. So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God. Explain the meaning and significance of these scriptures.
4. Verse 19 states: “Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification. Provide personal examples and include supporting scriptures.
